

Directions for Friday

Lutheran Church of the Messiah
407 Nassau Street, Princeton, NJ

[www.princetonlutheranchurch.org/
directions.html](http://www.princetonlutheranchurch.org/directions.html)

By Car:

From US 1, exit west on Harrison Road. Take a right on Nassau St. (Rt. 27) and continue three blocks to Cedar Lane. The church is on the right corner. Please park on Cedar Lane (street parking).

Lost? Please call:

Lucas Novak
732-715-8784

By Train:

From NYC Penn Station, buy a New Jersey Transit ticket to Princeton on the NE Corridor Line. The main line will take you to Princeton Junction station, where you will then transfer to the "Dinky" shuttle to Princeton Station.

Lutherans in Diaspora are students, faculty, and friends from non-Lutheran seminaries. The organizing schools are Union Theological Seminary, Harvard Divinity School, Yale Divinity School, and Princeton Theological Seminary.

Registration

Please register at:

www.princetonlutheranchurch.org/diaspora

Cost of $20 includes Friday night lodging & dinner, Saturday breakfast & lunch and all programming.

Housing

Visiting students will be housed with local students. If you would prefer other housing arrangements, please notify us.

Questions?

For any questions regarding registration, housing, the schedule of events, or justification by grace through faith, please contact:

Beth Garber

elizabeth.garber@ptsem.edu

Our sponsors include:

The ELCA Vocation and Education Unit
Thrivent Financial for Lutherans
The Mercer Mission Cluster of the NJ Synod, ELCA
The Lutheran Church of the Messiah, Princeton, NJ
Princeton Theological Seminary

31st Annual Lutherans in Diaspora Conference

Lutherans in Dialogue:

Where Do We Stand?

at Princeton Theological Seminary

February 13-14, 2009

Lutheran Church of the Messiah, Princeton, NJ

Princeton Theological Seminary

Where Do We Stand?

The Lutheran students of Princeton Theological Seminary cordially invite you to the 31st annual Lutherans in Diaspora Conference. This year, we welcome ELCA Executive for Ecumenical and Inter-Faith Relations Rev. Donald McCoid to speak on “Why Ecumenism Matters.”

Join us Friday night at Lutheran Church of the Messiah, home to Lutheran Campus Ministry at Princeton University. The evening includes dinner, worship, and Rev. McCoid’s keynote address. The conference continues Saturday morning at Princeton Theological Seminary with morning worship, a panel discussion, and a presentation by ELCA Candidacy Director Rev. Kim Beckmann.

Housing is available and meals are included in the cost of registration ($20).

When & Where

Friday Evening, February 13

Lutheran Church of the Messiah
407 Nassau Street, Princeton, NJ

4:30 Gathering and Registration

6:00 Dinner

6:45 Opening Worship

7:30 Keynote Speaker:

“Why Ecumenism Matters”

Rev. Donald McCoid

9:00 Fellowship Time

Saturday Morning, February 14

Princeton Theological Seminary
64 Mercer Street, Princeton, NJ

8:00 Breakfast

8:30 Worship

9:15 Panel Discussion

10:45 Coffee Break

11:15 Presentation on Candidacy &

Academic Vocation

Rev. Kim Beckmann

12:30 Lunch

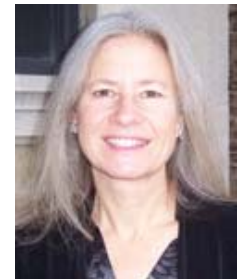

About our Guests

The Rev. Donald J. McCoid serves as Executive for Ecumenical & Inter-Religious Relations for the ELCA.

Previously bishop of the Southwestern PA Synod of the ELCA, Rev. McCoid is also co-president of the international Lutheran-Orthodox dialogue, facilitated by the Lutheran World Federation.

The Rev. Kim L. Beckmann serves as Director for Candidacy in the Vocation and Education Unit of the ELCA. Pastor Beckmann is the author of Prepare a Road: Preaching Vocation, Community Voice, Marketplace Vision (2002).

The Rev. E. Roy Riley, Jr. is bishop of the New Jersey Synod of the ELCA. Bishop Riley will serve as our moderator Friday evening.